PROSPERITY CENTRE

South Island Prosperity Partnership (SIPP), COAST, and the Indigenous Prosperity Centre are sister organizations united by a shared mission to foster a more inclusive, innovative, and prosperous future for Greater Victoria and beyond.

SIPP serves as Greater Victoria's economic alliance, driving collaboration across public, private, and Indigenous sectors to create household-supporting jobs, accelerate innovation, and diversify the economy. COAST focuses on building a sustainable blue economy in British Columbia, working with stakeholders across the ocean sector to create thriving conditions for entrepreneurs. The Indigenous Prosperity Centre promotes Indigenous-led prosperity strategies, fostering community well-being and innovation while supporting the stewardship of natural resources and enhancing economic development for Indigenous Nations and Peoples.

Together, these organizations collaborate to build a robust, diversified economy that supports innovation, reconciliation, and sustainable growth across Southern Vancouver Island and beyond.
